

Dr. Till Jaeger

Till Jaeger has been a partner at JBB Rechtsanwälte since 2001. He is a Certified Copyright and Media Law Attorney and advises large and medium-sized IT businesses as well as government authorities and software developers on matters involving contracts, licensing and online use. Till Jaeger also covers conventional areas of copyright law and entertainment law, advising corporate clients on matters relating to open content, web design and photography.

One particular focus of Till Jaeger's work is on the legal issues created by open source software. He is co-founder of the Institute for Legal Aspects of Free & Open Source Software (ifrOSS), contributing to its work with academic publications, lectures and seminars in the fields of software law and copyright law. He provides advice on compliance with open source licenses and on compatibility issues, and helps developers and software companies to enforce licenses both in Germany and beyond.

Till Jaeger covers all aspects of licensing under intellectual property law, including licenses for patents and know-how as well as for copyright works.
